

For Immediate Release/April 4, 2018

State Representative Paul Workman Endorses
Daniel Gonzalez for Lake Travis ISD, Place 2

Austin, TX – In the first major endorsement in the Lake Travis ISD school board election, Texas State Representative Paul Workman has come out strong for Daniel Gonzalez in his bid for Lake Travis ISD, Place 2.

"I support Daniel Gonzalez because he will be a trustworthy leader for the Lake Travis community. He will listen and work with parents and educators on issues facing our schools. I encourage you to join me in supporting Daniel Gonzalez for Place 2 on the Lake Travis School Board," Rep. Workman stated.

Gonzalez, a proud Austin native, holds a Political Science degree from Southwest Texas State University and a Masters of Business Administration (MBA) from St. Edward's University. As Director of Legislative Affairs for the Texas Association of REALTORS®, he works with lawmakers and citizens to protect private property rights and home ownership.

"As a trusted lawmaker who represents the entire Lake Travis School District in the Texas House, Rep. Workman understands that Lake Travis ISD deserves effective and experienced leadership," Gonzalez said. "I am grateful for Rep. Workman's endorsement and look forward to working with him on issues affecting the district."

#####

For further information, please contact Daniel Gonzalez at: daniel@danielforlaketravis.com
Find out more about Daniel at: www.danielforlaketravis.com or visit his Facebook page at:
<https://www.facebook.com/DanielforLakeTravisISD/>